

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

CONTACT

parishomicideconference@inhesj.fr

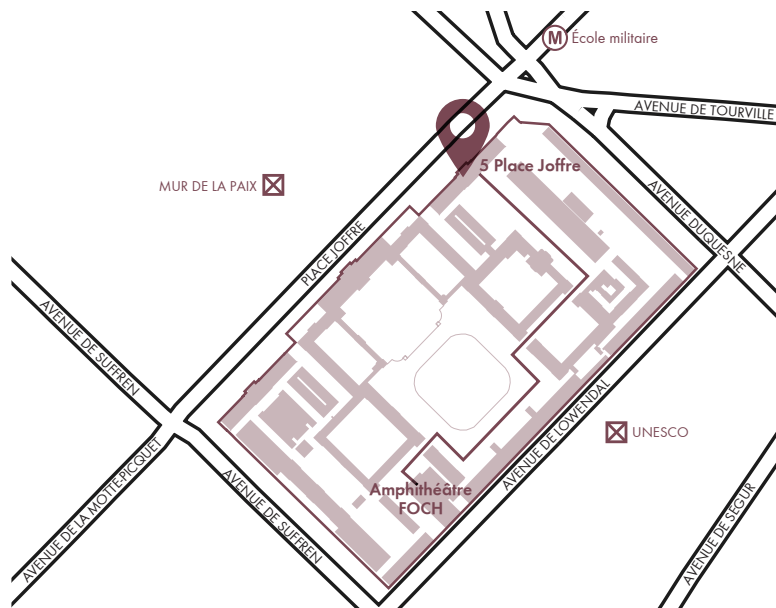

ACCESS

Metro : École Militaire / Bus : 28 - 80 - 82 - 92

CONFERENCE VENUE

Amphithéâtre FOCH
École militaire - INHESJ / ONDRP
1 place Joffre - 75007 Paris

An identity card is required to attend the conference

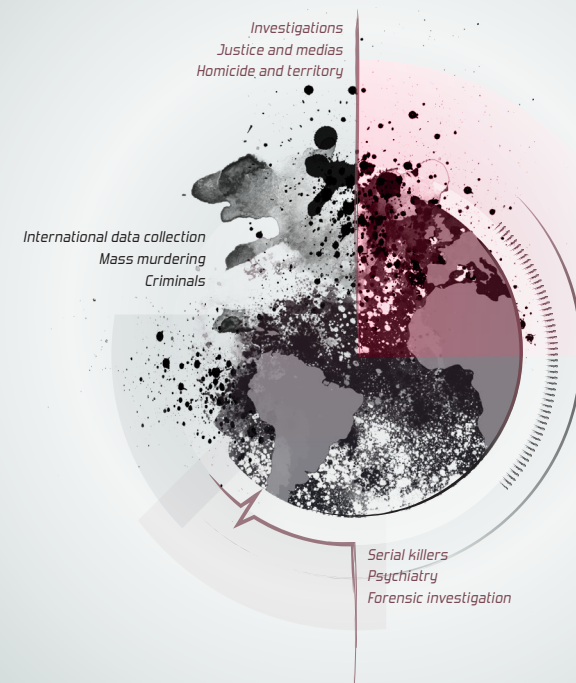

OBSERVATOIRE NATIONAL
DE LA DÉLINQUANCE
ET DES RÉPONSES PÉNALES

Find us on facebook and twitter

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON HOMICIDE

22 & 23 MAY 2017

AMPHITHEATRE FOCH
ÉCOLE MILITAIRE - PARIS

PROGRAM

Monday, May 22

DAY 1

MORNING

8.30 am Welcome, coffee/croissants

9.30 am Opening speech

10 am Introduction

10.30 am to 12.30 pm

1st session: measuring homicide

- International data gathering: the experience of the UNODC
Enrico BISOGNO, UNODC

- The European Homicide Monitor: the challenge for a joint database on lethal violence among European states
Janne KIVIVUORI, Professor of Criminology, University of Helsinki

- French official data and alternative sources
Christophe SOULLEZ, Head of the French National Observatory of Crime and Criminal Justice (ONDRP)

- Measuring homicide without official data: the case of Africa
Maurice CUSSON, Professor of Criminology, University of Montreal

12.30 pm to 2 pm Lunch break

AFTERNOON

2 pm to 3.30 pm

2nd session: identifying the factors of homicide

- World Homicide Survey: a new conceptual framework
Aurélien LANGLADE, Criminological research officer, ONDRP

- The influence of criminal institutions on homicide rate
Merhunisa VESELI, Criminological research officer, ONDRP

- Who Kills Whom? Improving data collection on female homicide
Marieke LIEM, Assistant Professor, Leiden University

3.30 pm to 4 pm Coffee break

4 pm to 6 pm

3rd session: Particular types of homicide

- Mass murdering: the U.S. experience
Cari J. ROBINS, Supervisory Special Agent, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)

- France dealing with terrorism
Loïc GARNIER, Head of the Coordination unit of the fight against terrorism

- Conflicts between criminals
Jacques DALLEST, General prosecutor at the Court of Appeal of Grenoble

- The psychiatric point of view on serial killers
Roland COUTANCEAU, Psychiatrist and President of the French Mental Health League

Tuesday, May 23

DAY 2

MORNING

8 am Welcome, coffee/croissants

8.30 am to 10 am

4th session: Homicide and territory

- European specificities
Meghan ROGERS, Research Associate, University at Albany, State University of New York

- In the Balkans and South Caucasus
Olivier GOURDON and Merhunisa VESELI, Criminological research officers, ONDRP

- Homicide rates : territorial heterogeneity in France
Jean-Luc BESSON, Geostatistical researcher, ONDRP

10 am to 10.30 am Coffee break

10.30 am to 12 pm

5th session: Investigating homicide

- Forensic investigation
Colonel Didier JAM, Assistant Director of the Forensic Department of the French Gendarmerie Nationale

- Investigating the causes of death
Blandine SCHNEDECKER, Physician, Forensic Institute of Guadeloupe

- Police investigation
Raphaël PRIEUR, Criminal police department of Paris

12 pm to 2 pm

AFTERNOON

2 pm to 4 pm

6th session: Homicide management, justice and media

- Unsolved homicides
Philippe GUICHARD, Head of the Central Office for the Repression of Violence against Individuals

- Justice dealing with homicides
Philippe BILGER, honorary magistrate

- Media coverage of homicides
Frédéric PLOQUIN, criminal justice and police journalist, Marianne

- Forensic institute dealing with terrorist attacks
Bertrand LUDES, Head of the Forensic Institute of Paris

4 pm Conclusion

Lunch break